

HEAVEN SENT

Diego Roldan, volunteer in the Emergency Department and Hospital Elder Life Program (HELP) at Trinitas, was recently named one of the five honorees in New Jersey Monthly's annual Seeds of Hope program. Roldan was among 65 nominees from around the state who were considered for their influence and impact on others by supporting their communities, helping neighbors, and giving back. He frequently reads passages of the Bible to patients because he believes "God sent me here."

John Emerson Photography, New Jersey Monthly magazine

POWERHOUSE SURGEON

Labib E. Riachi, MD, FACOG, Chair of Obstetrics and Gynecology at Trinitas, has received subspecialty certification in pelvic medicine and reconstructive surgery by the Division of Female Pelvic Medicine and Reconstructive Surgery of the American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology and the American Board of Urology. Since completing his training in 2001 under leading surgeons in women's obstetrical/gynecological and urological health in Europe and the US, Dr. Riachi has performed more than 3500 of these surgeries at Trinitas.

PROGRESS IN THE WORKS

Trinitas Regional Medical Center celebrated the tra its Emergency Department with a ceremonial gro the Williamson Street Campus. The $18 project to b 2017 will expand the current patient exam areas to and renovate the center to move services like x-ray closer to patients in order to accelerate delivery of e Donors, local community leaders, legislators, seni and members of the Emergency Department s progress as a major step toward ensuring quality h ery to the City of Elizabeth and communities beyo

FORMULA FOR SUCCESS

Chatham Day School hosts 4th Annual S.T. Technology, Engineering, Arts, and Math) l January 9, 2016 from 2:00-4:00 p.m. This event and is excellent for the entire family.

Submit your EDGE People event at w